As we begin February’s teachings, I would like to explain a few things. Beginning this month, there will also be videos/lessons for our younger children. These lessons will mostly focus on stories, with a few coloring pages, as well as crafts. This will be for children ages 2-5.

I encourage all families to use the February scripture readings calendar that I have included in this newsletter, too.

Last, but not least, I have included several love scripture verses for each family. Though some may be a little deeper than others, my hope is that families can read them together and discuss them, focusing how they can be applied into our families’ lives.
